About Mercado Moderno

Founded in 2001 by Alberto Vicente and Marcelo Vasconcellos, Mercado Moderno (MeMo) is a gallery dedicated to Brazilian design. Its main specialties are the vintage design from 1950s to 1980s, collecting incredible original pieces by names as Joaquim Tenreiro, Sergio Rodrigues, José Zanine Caldas, and the freshest Brazilian contemporary design-art. By organizing reference books, debates and exhibitions, MeMo conducts extensive work to spread Brazilian design.

About EXPO CHICAGO

Mercado Moderno presents selected works by Mameluca Studio. Limited edition pieces from past collections were selected to be presented. The chosen items are a reflection of the creativity of the designers Alessandra Clark and Nuno FS and represent the spirit of the contemporary Brazilian design production. There are many interesting characteristics in Mameluca studio's work principally the combination of function and art utilizing Brazilian culture as an inspiration. The elements of the culture are translated in the use of materials, techniques in the construction and movements of parts that leads to interaction, playfulness, and function.
